Villa Sassa is a sophisticated and energetic Hotel that embraces nature and recreation, offering lakefront splendor nestled in the hills overlooking Lake Lugano.

Built in the neo-Gothic style as the summer residence of Colonel and Mayor of Lugano, Giacomo Luvini-Perseghini, in the early 19th century, it then underwent Baroque-influenced alterations around the early 20th century, when the architectural remains of the family home were incorporated into the villa in Sassa. In particular, the portal, the wrought-iron railings of the balconies, and the stone balustrades of the stairs in the corner located at the west end of the garden. Of the old 19th-century villa today remains the monumental plinth that supports the property and allows views of Lake Lugano, the old core of the villa, with its painted ceilings dating from the first half of the 19th century and with some Baroque elements from the old bourgeois house in Lugano, as well as some neo-Gothic elements that stand out in the gardens. Beginning in 2002, Villa Sassa set out along a path of success and popularity that has led it to become one of the best-known structures in Canton Ticino today. A residence with discreet charm, it welcomes international guests from its privileged position overlooking the enchanting Lake Lugano and its gulf.

Nestled on a 16,000-square-foot "terrace" with stunning views of the lake and surrounding mountains, it offers a special and unforgettable experience with attention to detail and highly specialized and personalized service. Villa Sassa has 130 elegantly furnished rooms, suites, and apartments, all bright and with panoramic views. A glamour meeting point for Lugano residents and visitors, Villa Sassa is now also famous for its Wellness Club and its DOT SPA, covering more than 3,000 square meters. A qualified staff offers programs and treatments customized to restore natural balance and well-being with massages based on natural products, detox treatments, day spa, and couples' packages.

Its state-of-the-art conference center, set in a bright and natural environment, consists of several rooms that can accommodate up to 130 participants and is particularly sought after for national and international conferences. Its panoramic terrace is a popular location for banquets, receptions, and weddings. For board meetings with aristocratic charm, two frescoed rooms for 20 people are available inside the historic villa. The gourmet restaurant Ai Giardini di Sassa offers dishes with a Mediterranean flavor, laden with the colors and tastes of Italian cuisine, always seeking quality in the choice of raw materials. The perfect marriage between southern Switzerland, Ticino, and southern Italy, Calabria, homeland of Chef Eugenio Belfiore. At Sassa Bistrot & Bar, there is a wide range of delicious hot and cold dishes, grill options, and signature cocktails.
